Part VI, Section B, 11b.

The process used by the organization to review this Form 990 is: a complete copy of this Form 990 and attachments was made available to all the Board of Directors members at our Board Meeting on November 12, 2012, before the form was filed. The full form was reviewed and discussed, with questions answered by the President. Upon conclusion of this review, the form was accepted and approved by the Board.

Part VI, Section B, 15a.

The process for determining compensation for the President included: appointment of an independent subcommittee of the Board (of which no members had a conflict of interest as defined by the IRS) who made recommendations to the full Board based on the use of comparability data from the NH Employment Security for similar positions within similar agencies. This information was reviewed and approved by the full Board on July 11, 2005 and has been subsequently reviewed as required by the Board.

Part VI, Section A, 5.

The organization became aware of a significant diversion of the organization's assets in the last month of this fiscal year. An investigation by the President and the Chairperson of the Board of Directors, utilizing computer records and financial recordings, revealed that an amount that may exceed $20,000 was diverted through the entering of financial data (client payments) into the computer system that were found to not have been deposited in the account of the agency. This matter is under investigation by the Boscawen Police Department at the time that this report was written. A full audit has been contracted for with a local CPA who has agreed to review our processes, recording methods, and such; she will be making recommendations to our Board as to how we can take steps to prevent any such future diversions. The persons suspected of the diversion are no longer employed at the agency.

Part VI, Section C., 19.

The governing documents, conflict of interest policy, and financial statements are made available to the public upon request by contacting the President at our main office (119 North Main Street, Boscawen, NH 03303; telephone 603-753-8181) either in writing, by phone, or in person. Copies can be secured through the main office at a nominal per page fee.
